

Entertainment WEEKLY

#882 • JUNE 16, 2006

The Da Vinci Code

Last Tango in Paris

A Clockwork Orange

THE 25 MOST CO MOVIES

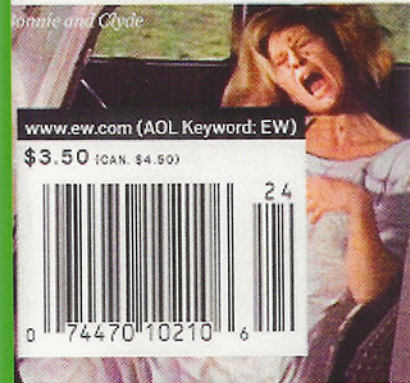

Why They Enraged Audiences
PLUS: What's Next for 'Da V

Basic Instinct

The Deer Hunter

John Travolta and Faye Dunaway

www.ew.com (AOL Keyword: EW)

$3.50 (CAN. $4.50)

TELEVISION

BY ALYNDA WHEAT

WHAT to WATCH

A day-to-day guide to notable programs*

Saturday 6.17

Blackbeard

8-10PM

Lady and the Tramp
ABC, TV-G

No argument here, it's a cinematic classic. But can today's overprogrammed kids really sit through a two-hour doggy version of Pride and Prejudice?

8-9PM

Dad's Dream Day
WE, TV-G

Honoring a dad who quit his job to run a foundation he started in memory of his daughter, who died of cancer at age 8.

9-10PM

Whose Wedding Is It Anyway?
Style, TV-PG-L

Steve Kemble plans parties. He does events for the likes of Paula Abdul. I'm telling you this so you understand that for him, whipping up a wedding in Ireland is no big.

8-11PM

Blackbeard

Hallmark, TV-PG-V

The brutal buccaneer (Braveheart's Angus Macfayden) meets his match in a Royal Navy lieutenant (Mark Umbers) who goes undercover to destroy the pirate. The action tries, but misses. As does the "reunion" of The Thorn Birds' Richard Chamberlain, as a fabulously corrupt governor, and Rachel Ward, as a barmaid/whore: They never share the screen. B—Mandi Bierly